BUSY WORK OF THE PROMOTERS

Gratifying News in the Weekly Report of Secretary H. P. Wood.

There was little or no business to bring before the short meeting of the Promotion Committee yesterday afternoon, Secretary Wood merely reading his interesting letter and reporting that much information regarding tourist prospects for the next few months would probably arrive here on the Alameda today.

The following is the letter, showing the advertising value of the Floral Parade:

The Secretary's Letter.

Honolulu, April 8th, 1909.
Chairman and Members of the Hawaii Promotion Committee.

Gentlemen:—Returns are now coming in showing that the photographs of the fourth Floral Parade, sent out by us, are being widely used.

The managing editor of Harper's Weekly writes that he will reproduce one. Collier's Weekly have used two; the Implement and Vehicle Record of San Francisco published the photographs of the Cavalry Girls and the auto winning the first prize.

The Automobile, published in Chicago, print in their March edition, a very interesting description of the parade, embellished with six cuts of decorated autos.

The Los Angeles Herald ran an illustrated story of the parade in a recent Sunday edition; Motor, of New York, acknowledges receipt of the photographs we sent and state that they will use them.

The International News Syndicate of Baltimore have received the selection of photographs sent them and promise to make use of them in the near future.

We are also in receipt of many acknowledgments of the receipt of the papers sent out describing the event.

Tom Richardson, manager of the Portland Commercial Club, writes under date of March 18th, in part as follows: "I was extremely interested in the Pacific Commercial Advertiser of February 23rd, containing a splendid illustrated report of your Floral Parade. I am going to take the liberty of handing this to Mr. Geo. Hutchins, Secretary of the Portland Rose Festival Association, to show him what others are doing in this line."

Mr. Geo. S. Lenhart, director of the Atlantic City Publicity Bureau, writes under date of March 20th:

"Please accept my thanks for copy of the official souvenir of Hawaii's fourth annual floral parade. The publication is a handsome one. It was a surprise to me the splendid showing made and has intensified my desire to visit your beautiful country. One of these days, I shall make good my promise to you and will bring a big crowd of eastern people with me."

The letter leaflet "For Your Information," which our business men are now sending out, is resulting in inquiries for further data concerning Hawaii.

The following letter, given in full, will be of interest.

"207 Temple St., Los Angeles, Cal.,
"March 16, 1909.

"My Dear Mr. Wood:—I want to congratulate you on the success of the exhibit at the Chamber of Commerce. Great improvement has been made in the last few weeks in the display of fruit and the lecture. The lady in charge is doing good work, working hard for Hawaii."

"We have now the alligator pear, mango and pineapple, but why no papaya? Don't you think we ought to have the papaya, the best of all Hawaiian fruit?"

"The Paradise of the Pacific for December was a big ad for the islands. Why not send a few more copies?"

"I am from Maui, my reason for being so much interested, I am, 'Very truly yours,'
"(Signed) E. A. WILSON."

Additional letters are coming to hand from different railroad companies, expressing an interest in our work and promising to assist in advertising the islands.

Mr. W. B. Kniskern, passenger traffic manager of the Chicago and North-western Railway Company, writes:

"We shall be pleased to make as much mention of Honolulu and Hawaii as we possibly can in our printed matter."

Mr. A. M. Cleland, general passenger agent of the Northern Pacific Railway Company, writes:

"The value of the service rendered by the Hawaii Promotion Committee as a bureau of information is fully appreciated and I take pleasure in enclosing herewith a page from the March issue of our time table folder on which you will note advertisement carried in your interests. Let me assure you that we shall take pleasure in featuring the islands in our advertising literature whenever opportunity presents."

Mr. L. M. Allen, general passenger agent of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Company, writes under date of March 22nd:

"I am pleased to inform you that it is our purpose to include in future editions of our standard folders a paragraph relating to opportunity for trans-Pacific travel to Hawaiian Islands from the port of San Francisco."

Mr. E. A. Abbott, advertising agent, Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, writes:

"We appreciate the excellent publicity work which is being done by your Promotion Committee and will be glad to see that appropriate mention is made in our publications wherever possible."

At the request of the Hawaii Committee, we are sending out by every mail, advertising matter to the addresses of numerous parties who are apparently planning to attend the next annual convention of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, which it is proposed to hold in Honolulu during the summer of 1910. Respectfully submitted,

H. P. WOOD,
Secretary.

JAPANESE SQUADRON PROGRAM.

Friday, April 9—
Officers and cadets will be the guests of Hon. S. M. Damon at his country estate at Moanalua.
From 9 to 11 a. m., the flag-ship band will play in the Capitol grounds.

Saturday, April 10—
Depart for Hilo.

GOOD FRIDAY SERVICES.

Today being Good Friday, the chief service at St. Andrew's cathedral will be the "Three Hours Service." This will begin at noon with the singing of the beautiful "Reproches" and will end at 3 p. m. The service consists of addresses on the "Last Seven Words," with hymns and prayers between. The addresses will be delivered by Bishop Restarick. While many stay during the whole service, yet anyone is at liberty to enter or leave the church at any time. Christians of every name are cordially invited to attend.

Vapo-Cresolene

Established 1912
Whooping Cough, Croup, Bronchitis
Cough, Grip, Asthma, Diphtheria

Cresolene is a boon to Asthmatics

Does it not seem more effective to breathe in a remedy to cure disease of the breathing organs than to take the remedy into the stomach?

It cures because the air rendered strongly antiseptic is carried over the diseased surface with every breath, giving prolonged and constant treatment. It is invaluable to mothers with small children.

Those of a consumptive tendency find immediate relief from coughs or inflamed conditions of the throat.

Sold by druggists.
Send postal for booklet.
